No destination epitomizes romance quite like Paris. Located in the heart of the City of Light, the Peninsula Paris is within walking distance to the city's famed monuments like the Arc de Triumph, luxury shopping on the Avenue des Champs-Élysées, plus top museums and restaurants—or, for those less fond of walking, a luxury house car is also available to transport you. The hotel houses 200 guest rooms plus 86 suites inspired by Haute Couture, showing off French heritage and savoir-faire. Newlyweds can venture down to the hotel's famous La Terrasse Kléber for breakfast, arguably the city's best café au lait, while people watching the busy Avenue Kléber. Couples can also enjoy massages and treatments at the spa, or lounge by the 20-meter indoor pool for ultimate relaxation. End the day with a drink on the hotel's famed Le Rooftop bar, where you can watch the sun set and take in breathtaking views of the twinkling Eiffel Tower at night.

Casa Angelina, Amalfi Coast

Casa Angelina is a quiet boutique hotel in Praiano, Italy, situated cliffside between Positano and Amalfi. The hotel's intimate and peaceful space coupled with its breathtaking views make it the perfect setting for honeymooners. Throughout the hotel, the white-washed interiors, contemporary artwork, and airy open-floor plan designed by Marco de Luca present a modern and refreshing feel. Each room and suite is spacious and bright, and equipped with up-to-date technology like iPads and laptops for the convenience of its guests. Throughout the hotel, couples will find state-of-the-art facilities like a fully-equipped fitness center, indoor and outdoor swimming pools, and a spa. A short walk down 250 steps of stairs will also lead you to the private Gavittella Beach Club, where you can relax by the ocean or set out for a boat ride along the coast.
